Short on time? Forgotten your soldering iron?

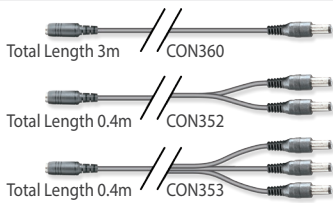

Follow these 5 easy steps and forget the hassle of using that soldering iron

1. Take your cable power cores and strip back each to the copper conductor by about 5mm.
2. Identify your cores as positive and negative. On the antinum® cable this is:

Black is negative (-)
Red is positive (+)

3. Loosen off the terminal marked + and - on the Zulug.
4. Insert the correct core into each terminal.
5. Tighten the terminal strip screws.
